

Colorado Nonprofits: Free or Low-Cost Legal Immigration Services

Last Updated On: 4/30/2020

Below is a directory of Colorado organizations that offer free or low cost immigration services. Representation is not guaranteed. The organizations below have agreed to be included in this directory, but that does not mean they must represent you. You are encouraged to call several attorneys to find one who is willing to work with you and who you can afford. Representation is a mutual decision that is left to you and the attorney. No endorsement or recommendation is made of any organization or attorney. This directory is not an attorney referral service, but is merely offered to assist you in narrowing your choices in selecting an attorney.

Abajo se encuentra un directorio de las organizaciones que ofrecen los servicios de inmigración gratis o de coste bajo. La representación no está garantizada. Las organizaciones (abajo listados) están de acuerdo de ser incluidos en este directorio, pero esto no significa que ellos deban representarle. Usted debe animarse para hablar con algunos abogados hasta encontrar alguno que pueda ofrecer el trabajar con usted, y que usted pueda pagar. La representación es una decisión mutua que se hace entre usted y el abogado. No se aprueba, ni tampoco se recomienda ningún abogado. Este directorio parcial no es un directorio de recomendación de servicios, es simplemente una alternativa para ayudarlo en su búsqueda en seleccionar a un abogado.

Colorado Legal Services, Specialized Immigration Services

1905 Sherman St., Ste 400 Denver, CO 80203

Phone: 303-837-1313

Colorado Legal Services (CLS) provides representation to immigrants who have been victims of certain kinds of crime and/or serious labor violations. The following is an overview of types of immigration assistance and legal representation we provide to eligible clients:

- CLS provides civil legal services to victims of trafficking.
 - CLS staff assists victims of human trafficking to report their crime and to apply for temporary and long-term immigration relief. CLS also provides information and legal assistance to individuals wishing to sue their traffickers for lost wages and damages as a result of the trafficking.
- CLS provides immigration assistance to eligible non-citizens who are victims of crime, spousal or family abuse. (U Visa and VAWA Self-Petition Support)
 - Non-citizens who are victims of serious crimes that occurred in the United States may be eligible for a special type of four-visa, the U visa, and a pathway to permanent residency. Victims must be willing to report the crime and to assist law enforcement in its investigation.
 - Non-citizens married to or recently divorced from a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident, and their children under 21, may be eligible to self-petition to adjust to permanent residence. Additionally, in certain cases, children between the ages of 21 and 25 and parents of an abusive U.S. Citizen or permanent resident may also be eligible for VAWA Self-petition.

We offer immigration legal services to the low-income individuals in the Latino community. We specialize on immigration benefits for survivors of violent crimes in the United States. Our main focus are survivors of gender related crimes. However, we also provide services to other survivors. Services:

- Community Outreach - We speak directly with thousands of immigrants about their legal rights and the resources available to them in the local communities.
- U-Visa - The U-visa is an immigration benefit created for victims of specific crimes, who have suffered substantial physical and mental abuse. In order to qualify, the petitioner must cooperate with the investigation and prosecution of criminal activity.
- VAWA - The Violence Against Women Act is a United States federal law. It allows immigrant victims of domestic violence to apply for immigration relief independent of their abusive spouse or parent.
- T-Visa - The T-Visa is an immigration relief for victims of human trafficking. Forced labor refers to a situation in which the victim is forced to work through the use of violence, intimidation and even accumulated debt, retention of documents and threats of reporting to immigration authorities.
- SIJS – Special Immigrant Juvenile Status - The purpose of this program is to help immigrant children in the United States who have been abused, abandoned, or neglected.
- Offer free consultations by appointment.
